

Please do not interfere with Indiana's Phone Privacy Law, we as citizens should not have to request privacy, we should be given it without question. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home for the simple fact that I can sit down and relax and not have to listen to the phone ringing constantly. Indiana's law has reduced my phone calls from around 100 per week to one or two a week.